Nondegree-seeking students
An individual who wishes to take graduate courses without formal admission to a degree program is classified as a nondegree-seeking student. In courses where enrollment is limited, first priority is given to students admitted to the program, followed by other VCU graduate degree-seeking students. Nondegree-seeking students are not exempt from any prerequisite that may be specified for a course. A nondegree-seeking student who is later admitted as a degree-seeking student will not be allowed to apply toward a degree more than six credits earned as a nondegree-seeking student. In order to enroll in graduate courses as a nondegree-seeking student, students must have graduated (or be in final term expecting to graduate) from a regionally accredited college or university or its equivalent. Information and forms certifying eligibility to take graduate courses are available at VCU Records and Registration service centers, or at the Graduate School, which is located in Moseley House on the Monroe Park Campus.

Please note that many of the courses offered by the counselor education program are open only to students currently enrolled in the program.

Members of underserved populations are encouraged to seek admission to the department.

COUNSELOR EDUCATION M. ED. PROGRAM ORIENTATION AND ADVISING
A mandatory orientation session for all new counselor education students is provided in the Fall of each year. Orientation to the program and to the counseling profession is also provided in the Introduction to Counseling course (CLED 600), a requirement for all students. In addition to the orientation, all students will be assigned a faculty advisor once admitted. Students are responsible for contacting their advisor at least once each semester while enrolled at which time advisors will provide students with information about academic (i.e., student learning outcomes, key assessments) and non-academic (i.e., student performance review and faculty feedback) indicators of their progress. Advisors may also contact students if additional meetings are required. Students are responsible for keeping copies of all syllabi that may be needed for future licensure/certification applications and when pursuing additional graduate studies.

M.ED. PROGRAMS OF STUDY
The M.Ed. in Counselor Education is a 48-hour program that requires at least two years to complete. REVIEW AND REMEDIATION PROCESS OF STUDENTS

In addition to meeting the academic standards set forth in the Counselor Education program, students are expected to conduct themselves in an ethical, responsible and professional manner. They must be knowledgeable of and at all times adhere to the general standards of professional ethics and practice set forth by the American Counseling Association (ACA) as well as the additional standards set forth for counseling practice in specific settings (e.g., American School Counselor Association, International Association of Marriage and Family Counselors, Association for Specialists in Group Work (ASGW)). The general and specific ACA standards for ethical practice are listed on the ACA web site at http://www.counseling.org. At the onset of their academic program, students are directed to review these standards and seek any clarification needed from their respective advisors.

Impairment and Lack of Competence

As future professional counselors, the faculty expects students to be concerned about other people, to be stable and psychologically well adjusted (personally and professionally) without impairment, to be capable of effective interpersonal relationships, to be able to receive feedback willingly, and to give feedback constructively. For the VCU counselor education program, impairment is indicated when “students show an inability to insightfully understand and resolve their own issues so that these issues do not interfere with the therapeutic process” (Bemak, Epp, & Keys, 1999, p. 21). Further, students are expected to behave generally in a manner that demonstrates fitness for a role in the counseling profession. Finally, we expect students to be committed to continued personal growth and professional development and to demonstrate that commitment through self-reflection and responsiveness to supervision in all activities related to their degree program. The faculty believes that it is ethically imperative that counselors be willing to do in their own lives what they ask their clients to do in theirs.

For all the reasons cited above, the faculty will regularly monitor not only students' academic progress but also selected personal characteristics that will affect their performance in the field. The purpose of this monitoring process is to ensure that all graduates of the Virginia Commonwealth University Counselor Education Department possess those characteristics sufficiently. This type of monitoring will include: academic progress (via student learning outcomes and counseling skills), impairment (i.e., mental health and behavior) and professional performance. In addition to faculty, site supervisors, and professional staff (i.e., VCU and field experience sites), and fellow students making observations and reporting potential student impairment, students can also self-identify for issues regarding impairment.
The Professional Performance Standards:

Students' fulfillment of ten Professional Performance Standards is reviewed by individual faculty during each class and at the conclusion of each semester by the VCU Counselor Education Department faculty. The Standards include:

1. Openness to new ideas
2. Flexibility
3. Cooperativeness with others

The Professional Performance Review Process:

Each Professional Performance Standard is rated on a scale of 1 (poor) to 5 (excellent) as described in the Criteria for Professional Performance Standards Evaluation (Appendix A). Students receiving a rating below 3 on one or more of the Professional Performance standards will be considered deficient in professional performance and subject to the following procedure:

1. The student and the issuing faculty* will meet to discuss the Professional Performance concern(s). The student will be presented with a Notification of Professional Performance Concern (Appendix B) that will list the deficient rating(s), provide the issuing faculty's explanation for the ratings and describe the specific remedial actions to be taken to correct each area of professional performance deficiency. If revisions to the remedial plan are made at this meeting, a revised Notification of Professional Performance Concern form will be issued to the student for review and signature within two working days after the meeting. Signatures of both the issuing faculty and the student will verify their understanding of the concerns, the required remedial actions, and the schedule for completing them. Both the student and issuing faculty will retain copies of the signed Professional Performance citation, and a copy shall be forwarded to the student's academic advisor.

   * Note: “issuing faculty” refers either to the individual professor who issues the Notification of Professional Performance Concern or to the academic advisor if the Notification is issued by more than one faculty member.

November, 2015
2. If a student receives more than one Notification of Professional Performance Concern during his/her Program of Study or fails to show reasonable progress in resolving deficiencies previously cited, he/she will be required to meet with the issuing faculty and his or her academic advisor in accordance with the procedure described in #1 above. Depending upon the nature of new performance concerns and/or the reasons for the student’s failure to comply with previously determined remedial action plans, the issuing faculty and academic advisor will consult the full VCU Counselor Education Faculty regarding the development of alternative remedial strategies and/or evaluation of the student's fitness for continuation in the Program. The issuing faculty, the student, and the academic advisor will retain a signed copy of any subsequent revision made to the Notification of Professional Performance Concern.

3. Faculty will initiate the Professional Performance Review protocol at any time for students who knowingly engage in illegal or unethical activities or for students whose professional performance is deemed to present an immediate threat to the well being of others. In such cases and depending upon the level of perceived threat, the combined faculty may recommend discontinuation in the Program without opportunity for student remediation.

Note: All faculty recommendations for denial of a student's continuance in the Counselor Education program will be forwarded to the Dean of the School of Education with the student retaining the right to appear before the Dean.

The criteria for the professional performance evaluation is included in Appendices A and B.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

A. Practicum and Internship

All master’s students must complete a practicum and internship. The practicum is a 100 hour clinical experience including at least 40 hours of direct service to clients. The internship is a 600 hour clinical experience including at least 240 hours of direct service to clients. Each course has additional requirements as well. Note: All students may have to complete a Background Check prior to being approved for practicum/internship.

The Practicum and Internship courses are time-intensive. Thus, the faculty recommends that students in Practicum and Internship do not take more than 9 hours in those semesters.

During Practicum and Internship, students are expected to work with a diverse clientele. Diversity includes culture, disability, ethnicity, race, religion/spirituality, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status/partnership, language preference, or socioeconomic status.
Students in the school counseling track must gain experience at the elementary (K-6 grade) level and the secondary (7-12 grade) level. Thus, Practicum and Internship must be at two different levels (elementary and 7-12 grade). Additionally, sites are limited to schools in Richmond, Henrico, Hanover, and Chesterfield. The Practicum must be completed in a coeducational environment in which at least 30% of the student population meets one of the following criteria: Limited English proficiency; ethnic/racial minorities; mental, emotional, or physical disabilities; or economically disadvantaged and participating in Title I, Head Start, or Free/reduced Lunch Program.

Students in the college student development and counseling track are expected to gain a diverse experience by participating in practicum and internship at a minimum of two different sites.

Students can complete the 600 hour Internship in one semester or in two semesters. If a student is enrolled in the 6 credit (600 hour) internship, all of the hours must be completed in one semester. If 600 hours are not completed, students will be required to take at least 3 credits of internship until the hours are completed.

Students cannot accrue direct hours for Practicum or Internship before the VCU semester begins. If the student has liability insurance and instructor permission, the student can accrue indirect hours before the VCU semester begins.

Application Deadlines:

Practicum (CLED 604 or 608) Internship (CLED 672)
Fall semester: February 1 Fall semester: February 1
Spring semester: September 1 Spring semester: September 1

*All completed practicum and internship applications must be submitted to the Department’s Clinical Coordinator. Practicum and Internship applications for School Counseling Track students require a Tuberculosis skin test verification from a health care provider. See the application for more details. Applications can be found on the Counselor Education Web site.

The School of Education Student Services Department will place all school counseling Practicum and Internship students based on the information on their applications. Students in the College Student Development and Counseling track are expected to identify sites at which they would like to interview and get approval from the Clinical Coordinator prior to contacting the sites.

Policy on Paid Practicum and Internship Experiences

The Counselor Education faculty strongly recommends that students complete all degree requirements prior to accepting paid employment in a counselor position. It is only permissible to count hours accrued in a paid position as practicum or internship hours if students meet all VCU School of Education, Counselor Education, Virginia Department of Education (if applicable), CACREP, and course requirements. For example, students in the school counseling track must complete 100 hours of their clinical experience at a different level (i.e., elementary and secondary [grades 7-12]). Each student’s on-site supervisor must have master’s degree in counseling or a related field and a minimum of two years of relevant professional experience. Internship on-site supervisors must have three years of relevant professional experiences. And, students must maintain professional liability insurance.

B. Examinations

Comprehensive Examination for the VCU Counselor Education Program
A final, comprehensive examination is required of all degree candidates. In order to be eligible to take the comprehensive exam, students must have completed EDUS 660 and all counseling core courses excluding Practicum and Internship. Students are exempt from these requirements if they are graduating in the semester in which the exam is given. Students must be enrolled during the semester in which they take the exam.

The comprehensive exam used is the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) and is a nationally standardized exam for counselors-in-training. It consists of 160 questions. There are 20 items in each of the following areas:

- Human Growth and Development - studies that provide an understanding of the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels.
- Social and Cultural Foundations - studies that provide an understanding of issues and trends in a multicultural and diverse society.
- Helping Relationships - studies that provide an understanding of counseling and consultation processes (Theories and Techniques).
- Group Work - studies that provide an understanding of group development, dynamics, counseling theories, group counseling methods and skills, and other group work approaches.
- Career and Lifestyle Development - studies that provide an understanding of career development and related life factors.
- Appraisal - studies that provide an understanding of individual and group approaches to assessment and evaluation.
- Research and Program Evaluation - studies that provide an understanding of types of research methods, basic statistics, and ethical and legal considerations in research.
- Professional Orientation and Ethics - studies that provide an understanding of all aspects of professional functioning including history, roles, organizational structures, ethics, standards, and credentialing (based on the ACA Code of Ethics).

The comprehensive exam is given three times per year: on the first Saturday in October, on the first Saturday in March, and on the second Saturday in July. (Dates are subject to change if there is a conflict with University holidays.) Students must apply to take the exam at least six weeks prior to the exam date. Applications for the exam are available in the Counselor Education Office, Oliver Hall Room 4065. The cost of the exam is $50, due on the day of the exam through money orders only.

Passing scores on the comprehensive examination must be within one standard deviation of the national mean provided for each version of the examination. Students who do not earn qualifying scores will be asked to retake the examination. If a pass on the retake does not occur, program faculty can recommend additional options. Additional reexamination options may include a written examination, an oral examination, or a combination of written and oral examination, as determined by program faculty members.

Preparing for the CPCE

In preparation for the CPCE, students are encouraged to create and collect comprehensive study notes from all coursework in the counselor education program. This includes, specifically:

- Introduction to Counseling
- Child and Adolescent/Adult Development
- Theories of Counseling
- Techniques for Counseling
- Group Procedures in Counseling
- Career Information and Exploration
- Assessment Techniques in Counseling
- Research Methods in Education
- Multicultural Counseling
- Legal and Ethical Issues in Counseling

National Counselor Exam (NCE)

The National Counselor Exam is an optional examination for students and is offered in the Fall and Spring at VCU. In order to be eligible to take the NCE, students must have completed CLED/EDUS 615, EDUS 660, and all counseling core courses excluding Practicum and Internship. Students are exempt from these requirements if they are graduating in the semester in which the exam is given. The NCE is comprised of 200 multiple choice questions. When students are in their final semester, they are eligible to take the NCE through the university and the counselor education program coordinator will notify NBCC of these students so an invitation will be sent directly from NBCC.

- This is an application for national certification, not just for an examination.
- The final outcome of this process is the NCC credential, which requires maintenance and updating throughout one's career.
- There are several requirements for the NCC credential, only one of which is passing the National Counselor Examination for Licensure and Certification (NCE).
• In many states, but not all, a passing NCE score that is obtained through the graduate student application option may be acceptable for state licensure. To determine what examination your state uses for licensure, visit www.nbcc.org/directory.

• Benefits of this credential include a referral system, affordable liability insurance, advocacy on behalf of the profession, protection of the integrity of the counseling profession, and salary supplementation in some states.

The following is an outline showing the eight CACREP domains on which the examination questions are based:

Fundamentals
- Human Growth and Development - studies that provide an understanding of the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels.
- Social and Cultural Foundations - studies that provide an understanding of issues and trends in a multicultural and diverse society.
- Helping Relationships - studies that provide an understanding of counseling and consultation processes.
- Group Work - studies that provide an understanding of group development, dynamics, counseling theories, group counseling methods and skills, and other group work approaches.
- Career and Lifestyle Development - studies that provide an understanding of career development and related life factors.
- Appraisal - studies that provide an understanding of individual and group approaches to assessment and evaluation.
- Research and Program Evaluation - studies that provide an understanding of types of research methods, basic statistics, and ethical and legal considerations in research.
- Professional Orientation and Ethics - studies that provide an understanding of all aspects of professional functioning including history, roles, organizational structures, ethics, standards, and credentialing.

In addition, the NCE is based on the following five work behavior domains:

Fundamentals of Counseling
For example:
- Assess client’s progress toward counseling goals
- Assess client’s psychological functioning
- Conduct diagnostic interview
- Assess need for client referral
- Diagnose based on DSM-5 criteria

Assessment and Career Counseling
For example:
- Use test results for client decision making
- Select and administer assessment instruments for counseling
- Provide career counseling for persons with disabilities
- Administer and interpret achievement tests
- Assess client’s educational preparation

Group Counseling
For example:
- Facilitate group process
- Assist group members in providing feedback to each other
• Conduct post-group follow-up procedures
• Identify behaviors that disrupt group process
• Assess progress toward group goals

Programmatic and Clinical Interventions
For example:
• Participate as member of multi-disciplinary team
• Provide crisis counseling to victims of disaster
• Assess programmatic needs
• Conduct community outreach
• Administer and manage counseling program

Professional Practice Issues
For example:
• Evaluate the performance of other counselors
• Provide diversity training
• Provide clinical supervision for professionals
• Engage in data analysis
• Conduct community needs assessment

The cost of the exam is $310, due with the on-line application (to be completed a few months before the exam).

For additional information on the NCE, visit http://www.nbcc.org/NCE.

C. Program of Study Form

Preliminary Program of Study
Student and advisor meet to develop a program of study (See Appendix C and Appendix D). Once the program of study is completed, including signatures from the student, advisor and department chair, it is forwarded to the School of Education Student Services Office for filing. During their first semester in the counseling program, the program of study should be completed or no later than the semester in which nine credits are earned.

D. Counseling and Other Related Student Activities

1. Liability Insurance for Supervised Counseling Activities
All students must obtain professional liability insurance prior to enrolling in CLED 604/CLED 608 (Practicum). They must maintain this insurance until completion of CLED 672 (Internship). Insurance is available through membership in the American Counseling Association, American Mental Health Counseling Association, or American School Counselor Association. Membership is a prerequisite to obtaining the insurance. Students must produce evidence of insurance coverage to the instructor in each course in which service delivery activities are expected.
2. Non-Supervised Counseling Activities of Graduate Students
Students enrolled in Counselor Education programs should not engage in unsupervised counseling activities. This policy applies to any student enrolled in a counselor education degree program approved by the faculty.

E. Counselor Education Academic Program Standards and Endorsement Policy
In order to be awarded a master’s degree in Counselor Education and recommended for credentialing and employment, a student must complete all required coursework, fulfill all department and university requirements, pass the comprehensive examination, and obtain favorable evaluations on the Clinical Evaluation Continuum for Counselor Education from program faculty and clinical supervisors.

According to the VCU Graduate school, graduate faculty advisers and program directors will review the academic progress of all graduate students in their programs at the end of each semester. The academic standing of any graduate students who receive multiple grades of C or grades of D or F will be reviewed for possible termination from their programs. Although the grade of U is not included in the calculation of the graduate GPA, graduate students who receive one or more grades of U will be considered for possible termination.

Students who have completed all minimum degree requirements but who are out of compliance with minimum graduation requirements (i.e., graduate grade-point average, 20 percent C or below, 50 percent 500-/600-level course work, etc.), may be allowed, with the permission of their graduate faculty advisers, program directors, academic deans/dean designees and the Graduate School to take additional course work to meet minimum University Graduate Council graduation requirements. Requests for such actions must be processed via the special action form according to the instructions articulated in the Exceptions policy in the Graduate Bulletin (http://bulletin.vcu.edu/graduate/study/general-academic-regulations-graduate-students/exceptions/). Students will have a maximum of one calendar year to complete such additional requirements. At the end of that time, if students are still out of compliance, they must be terminated from the program for lack of academic progress.

In addition to Graduate School requirements, students in the Counselor Education Program must earn a grade of A or B in courses involving demonstration of counseling skills (i.e., Techniques, Practicum, and Internship).

Students are expected to abide by the VCU Honor Code, the ACA Code of Ethics, and demonstrate professional dispositions in a manner appropriate for the counseling field. Students must demonstrate skills necessary to work effectively with a diverse clientele.

F. Department of Counselor Education Policy on Electronic Devices in Counseling Classes

Technology assists counselors in numerous ways. Developing the technological competence necessary to be effective in the profession will be addressed throughout the program. However, classroom activities in counselor education classes involve interaction and communication. Computers and other technology can present a barrier to that communication. Accordingly, the use of cell phones (including texting) in classes is prohibited. Use of personal computers in classes may be allowed at the professor’s discretion.

G. Student Counseling Support

For students who need support for interpersonal and mental health challenges, the VCU University Counseling Services is available in Room 238 of the University Student Commons, 907 Floyd Avenue. STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
The Counselor Education Department offers three student organizations for graduate students. All students in the Counselor Education Program are encouraged to join and actively participate in these organizations:

1. Omega Lambda Iota Chapter of Chi Sigma Iota. Chi Sigma Iota (CSI), the international honor society for counseling students, professional counselors, and counselor educators, is one of the largest counseling organizations in the world. Its mission is to recognize and promote excellence in the profession of counseling. This is an academic honorary society specifically in the area of graduate programs in Counselor Education. Chi Sigma Iota offers workshops and professional development activities for the counseling community and undertakes philanthropic projects and offers opportunities to serve the Richmond community. Student membership requirements: GPA: 3.5 or better; Completed at least 9 graduate credit hours in counseling program; Student must be in good standing with the Counselor Education Department; Student must be working toward a Master’s degree or Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Supervision. Dr. Donna Gibson is the Faculty Advisor.

2. Counselor Education Student Networking Association (CESNA). CESNA is the Department’s student organization. The relationships students develop in graduate school provide a network of colleagues with whom students may share ideas and resources throughout their counseling careers. Thus, the goal of the organization is to develop collegiality and a spirit of professionalism among counselor education students. CESNA is led by a small group of students under the supervision of a faculty advisor. The officers and advisor plan activities for the students in the program to attend. Examples of these activities include, but are not limited to, fall/spring social events, the annual alumni dinner, graduation celebrations, and guest presentations. These opportunities provide students with additional knowledge about specific areas in the counseling field, as well as the opportunity to network with other students and respected guests. Students are automatically become members of CESNA when they enter the Counselor Education Program and no membership fees are required. Dr. Donna Dockery is the Faculty Advisor.

3. Student Affairs Networking Association (SANA). SANA is the Department’s student organization that focuses on issues relevant to those who are interested in student affairs and higher education. Regular meetings are held throughout the academic year. Dr. Abigail Conley is the Faculty Advisor.

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING ORGANIZATIONS

All students are urged to join the American Counseling Association (ACA) in order to be bound by the association’s Ethical standards and in order to obtain group malpractice insurance. These application are available on their website (see below). Counselors and student development professionals should belong to professional associations after they earn their degrees if they are to stay current in the field and keep abreast of new trends and issues. Active participation in professional associations is vital to professional success. At a minimum, each graduate student is expected to join appropriate associations. Membership dues are usually less for students and members receive professional newsletters, journals and announcements of professional activities.

FINANCIAL AID, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Please contact the VCU Financial Aid office for information specifically regarding financial aid applications and procedures (http://graduate.admissions.vcu.edu/apply/finaid/).

In an effort to recognize academic achievement, service, and talent, scholarships are awarded each year to many deserving students. Families, clubs, corporations, foundations, alumni, and other organizations fund these scholarships and awards. Students in the Counselor Education Program have the opportunity to apply and possibly receive scholarships offered for those students in the School of Education, and more specifically for students striving to be school counselors. The School of Education has several different types of scholarships available with information available at http://www.lsee.vcu.edu/undergraduate-program/scholarships/school-of-education-scholarships/.

There are limited graduate assistantships available through the School of Education. Applicants should make their interest in these known in their application and to the program coordinator.
