

Attachment CC

If you receive a grade of “C” in a class, you must notify your advisor. If you receive a grade of “C” in a second course, then your academic performance in the program will be reviewed by the Ed Leadership department, and you will receive written notice of their review findings. A third grade of “C” could result in termination from the program.