

Provisional Admission

Your letter will explain why you have been provisionally admitted into the program. If you need to pay your application fee, you must do so by the end of the semester for which you have been admitted.

If you are missing paperwork (transcripts, letters of reference, or test scores), you need to send that information to student services by the end of the semester for which you have been admitted.